FRANK GEHRY TEACHES ONLINE CLASS

Hosted through Masterclass, the 87 year old Frank Gehry will teach students of all ages about his "unconventional philosophy on architecture, design and art." The course will unfold over more than 15 pre-recorded lectures.

Interested? More info at Architectural Record. (<http://www.architecturalrecord.com/articles/12274-frank-gehry-to-teach-his-first-ever-online-class>)

Create the extraordinary

At 19 years old, Frank Gehry was a truck driver taking sculpture classes at night school. His vision for what architecture could accomplish went on to reshape our cities' skylines, and the imaginations of artists and designers around the world. Now this master builder invites you into his never-before-seen model archive for a look into his creative process.
